

PIKE COUNTY ROAD.

The following is an extract from a leading editorial in the Quincy Herald, written in reply to a communication from Bushnell, Rogers and Bull:

We say boldly and unequivocally that Mr. Schuyler has a "desire" for the Pike county road, and that his agents and associates have labored industriously for three years past with the Illinois legislature to obtain that charter, and this will not be denied. We say also, right here, that whether Mr. Schuyler expressed to these gentlemen any "interest" in that road or not, he has an interest in it, and as we are credibly informed, a greater "interest" in it than any other man upon earth—being, as we are informed, the largest stockholder in the Springfield and Naples road, which is but a part of the same line of road. The great fight in favor of the Pike county road comes from Mr. Schuyler and those who are connected with him as joint proprietors of the road from Springfield to Naples. All this cannot be denied.

We are told also by the gentlemen who sent us the above communication, that "Mr. Schuyler expressed himself friendly to our road and as desirous to aid us under circumstances which would in his view justify him in doing so."—"Circumstances!" indeed! What were the "circumstances" under which Mr. Schuyler "would aid us?" Mr. Bushnell has neglected to tell us. It is all understood, however. The information Mr. Schuyler had received from Springfield that the Pike county charter would probably pass, having already passed the Senate, was to him, "circumstance" enough! Nobody doubts that Mr. Schuyler would "aid" us, if he could be made to believe that the Pike county charter would never be granted. But as long as there is a prospect, or reasonable ground for a hope that he will be able to obtain that charter, rest assured he will not loan you a dollar! That he has a better prospect and ground for better hopes now than he ever did before, cannot be denied!

Public Buildings in Santa Fe.

It is some few hundred miles distant, but that is no matter to our western people. Just look, you stone masons, at the advertisement of the Commissioners for the erection of public buildings in Santa Fe, in this morning's paper. This is but the commencement of what may be a profitable contract.—[Republican.]

We learn by a private telegraphic dispatch from Vincennes, that the Bride, with a cargo from Cincinnati, sunk at the Grand Chain, in the Wabash, on the night of the 18th, in six feet water. The boat broke in two, and, in addition, she had 300 barrels of lime on board, which set fire to the boat, and she no doubt will prove a total loss.—[Louisville paper.]

A. T. Lacy, Esq., has been elected Cashier of the Branch Bank of Missouri, at Cape Girardeau—removed from Jackson—and Mr. Lee Byrne, Clerk of the Bank.

It is with regret that we learn that the dwelling house of John Robinson, Esq., ten miles west of Fulton, was, on Tuesday night of last week, entirely consumed by fire. Not more than a third of the household furniture was saved. The fire was communicated from the pipe of a cooking stove. The house was not insured.—[Fulton Telegraph.]

Stock.—There appears to be an abatement in the demand for stock for the California market, particularly in the article of Beef Cattle. We hear now that good cattle are hard of sale at $4 50 per hundred pounds. A month or so ago, they were quick at $5. There are yet some trains to leave this county, but we are told that the principal part of the cattle of this description have been selected. Milch cows are still scarce and dear, selling at from $15 to $30, as in quality.—Lexington Express.

Col. Benton arrived in St. Louis, on Friday, from Washington.

CONVICTED.—On Monday last an old man named William Adair was put under his trial for an assault with intent to commit a rape upon the person of a little girl aged only about eleven years! Although seventy years of age, with steps almost tottering on the verge of his last final resting place, the damnable crime was fastened upon the old man by a jury of his fellow citizens, who after a few minutes absence from box returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed upon one year in the penitentiary as his punishment.—[Oquawka Spectator, 20th.]
